

4

Treasury of the United States,

In your reply, please quote
above initials.

Washington, March 14, 1887.

Sir:

I will thank you to inform me what amount of available storage room you now have for Standards, or how long it will take to fill the space with the present monthly coinage.

Very respectfully,

J. W. Phelps
Asst. Treasurer U.S.

Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia,

Pa.

*Cashier reports
we can store
$4,000,000.
treasures having
space for 100,000.
Even this one draft
are made upon us*

356

Treas. Le. S.
Washington, D.C.
Mch 14. 1887.

J. W. Wheepley,
Asst. Treas.

Asks how much storage
there is for "Standards"
and how long it will take to fill the space.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 144

[Abstract:] Asks how much storage there is for "Standards"...

T.

In your reply, please quote above initials.

Treasury of the United States,
Washington,
March 14, 1887

Sir:

I will thank you to inform me what amount of available storage room you now have available for Standards, or how long it will take to fill the space with the present monthly coinage.

Very respectfully,
Jw. Whelpley
Asst. Treasurer U.S.

Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent Mint U.S.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

[Noted at bottom:]

Cashiers reports we can store $4,000,000 besides having space for M.C. even this no drafts are made expenses